Eligibility:

- ✓ Students eligible for the Erin Trujeque Memorial Scholarship must have been diagnosed and treated for childhood cancer at a New Mexico Pediatric Oncology Treatment Facility.
- ✓ Students must have on file at the CCFNM Office an In-Take Form completed upon original diagnosis.
- ✓ Complete application in its entirety and submit prior to deadline
- ✓ In order to receive the full award, register for 12 or more hours per semester (award for less than 12 hours will be prorated)
- ✓ Students who drop classes below 12 hours or disenroll within the first two weeks of any semester MUST return scholarship award to Erin Trujeque Memorial Fund in order to be eligible for future scholarship awards.
- ✓ Complete a minimum of 12 volunteer hours per academic year at Children’s Cancer Fund of New Mexico and/or Erin Trujeque Memorial Event(s) (Hours will be scheduled with and verified by CCFNM staff). A minimum of six hours must be completed prior to the beginning of the 2018 Fall Semester and the remaining six hours must be completed prior to the beginning of the 2019 Spring Semester. The Children's Cancer Fund of New Mexico implemented the volunteer service requirement with the following intent:
 - To provide recipients with the opportunity to give back to the organization
 - To provide recipients with the opportunity to learn how the funds are raised
 - To interest recipients in becoming more involved with CCFNM
 - To help recipients understand importance of helping children who are going through similar experiences.
- ✓ Inform Erin Trujeque Memorial/CCFNM of any changes in address or educational status.

Requirements:

- ✓ Scholarships are awarded for ONLY two semesters per academic year (e.g., Fall and Spring; Summer and Fall; Spring and Summer, etc.)
- ✓ Scholarship applications must include a short essay about how you have overcome your experiences with childhood cancer and how your goals for the future have been affected by this experience and enclose a recent photo, which will be displayed at tournament events. Failure to include this essay and photo will constitute an “incomplete application” and will make you ineligible for a scholarship.

RELEASE:

I hereby authorize the Erin Trujeque Memorial Golf Tournament and the Children’s Cancer Fund of New Mexico to release any information contained within this application (except for social security number and birth date) and its attachments for the purpose of promotion of the Children’s Cancer Fund of New Mexico and the Erin Trujeque Memorial Events. Further, I agree to be contacted by the media for these purposes.
